Suches Abroad of a Washington Firm. THE STAR has frequently had occasion to point out that Washington, though other cities claim to be of greater mercantile importance, is previded with business establishments that is provided with business establishments that are not excelled in their facilities and numbers and get its business men, merchants who in point of ability and enterprise have no superiors. In recent years this development of Washington as a business city has been quite as marked as its rapid development in other respects. A striking instance has just been given in Boston of the success achieved abroad by Washington's progressive business men, Messrs. W. B. Moses & Sons having underbid several Boston firms for furnishing the United States navy yard in that city. The award, which has just been announced, shows that this typical just been announced, shows that this typical enterprising Washington firm can undersell in their own city the foremost firms in a business center, and goes to prove that Washington has good reason to boast of its business houses.

A Choir Director Resigns. Signor Mariano Maina has resigned his position as director of the choir of St. Patrick's Church. The announcement was made at the rehearsal last night and there was a universal expression of regret, as he has brought the choir to a high degree of excellence. The quartet is a good one and the chorus is among the best trained in the city. Sig. Maina will direct the choir for the last time tomorrow.

A good deal has been said in the press relative to Rev. Dr. Ecob, the pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Albany, N. Y., who, after the decision by the general assembly in the Briggs case, announced his withdrawal from the Presbyterian communion. This action was looked upon as rather extraordinary. No minister has followed his example. It served, however, to attract a good deal of attention to Dr. Ecob, and in this connection it is of interest to know what his most distinguished parishioner said of him in a letter to a friend written some two years ago. Dr. Ecob was paster of the Presbyterian Church in Augusta, Me., for a number of years, and the late Secretary of State, Jas. G. Blaine, attended his church and had a strong friendship for him. ACCURATE IMPORT STATISTICS. Circular in Regard to Countries Having a Depreciated Currency. Secretary Carlisle has issued an important circular to customs officers and others as to statistics of imports from countries having a depreciated currency. It reads: "The department has been notified that the statistics of imports from countries having a depreciated currency are seriously vitiated by the fact that collectors of customs, in reporting the values of such imports, make out their return in the depreciated currency indicated by the invoice, instead of in its equivalent in United States money, as is the intent of the laws and regulations governing the method of stating the values of imports.

"This defect is especially noticeable in returns of free goods, as, for example, coffee and india rubber coming from Brazil; and goods subject to specific duty, such as wool coming from the Argentine Republic. "At the present time, in view of the fluctuating balance of trade, it is especially important that statistics of imports and exports shall be prepared as accurately as possible.

"You are therefore instructed to require importers to declare upon all entries of goods which are free of duty or subject to specific rates of duty, whether the value of the goods is expressed in the depreciated coin or paper cur-rency of the country of exportation, and if expressed in depreciated coin or paper currency they shall reduce the same to its equivalent value in the standard coin of the United States
